SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

The OSDS coordinates several scholarship programs to provide the poor but deserving students of the University with money allowances that abates their financial needs in the school. The following are the scholarship programs that are offered in the Pamantasan ng Lungsod ng Maynila through the OSDS:

Buddhist Compassion Relief Tzu Chi Foundation Philippines

A non-profit organization and considered as partner of the University in providing opportunities to economically disadvantaged but academically deserving students.

Charity First Foundation Incorporation

The commitment of Charity First Foundation to social growth and community development lead to a partnership with PLM in providing scholarship grants to poor but deserving students of the institution.

DOST-SEI Scholarship Grant

In order to recognize and identify the country's youth with very high aptitude in Science and Mathematics, the Department of Science and Technology (DOST) entered into a partnership with PLM and offered a merit scholarship program to its students.

Luis Co Chi Kiat Foundation

A foundation dedicated to provide educational assistance that would equip deserving individuals to secure employment and growth has extended its scholarship program to the students of PLM.

SM Foundation

A non-profit organization organized for the purpose of extending support and assistance to less-fortunate individuals has sponsored an educational scholarship program in PLM.

Megaworld Foundation

Non-stock, non-profit corporation. The foundation has offered to provide financial assistance and/or other benefits to qualified, deserving and talented but financially-handicapped students of educational institutions.

CIBAC Scholarship

Citizens' Battle Against Corruption, a partner organization of PLM, has offered a financial assistance in the form of scholarship in which it intends to help and provide educational opportunities to economically disadvantaged but deserving youth/individuals who wish to take up degree programs in the college.

CFCBI Foundation

A non-profit, socio-civic, non-government organization composed of Filipino-Chinese businessmen whose aim is to support the government in its goal of promoting an environment conducive to job creation and economic advancement.
